Year 4 trip:

Year 4 went to Holly Lodge in Richmond Park this week, engaging in a science workshop called 'Living things and their habitats'. During the workshop, they had the opportunity to create their own habitats, explore pond life, and observe natural habitats along the nature trail.

Helping Hands Award:

Well done to P in 1L who was awarded the Helping Hands cup this week, for helping support fellow students in their writing and for always looking out for others who might need a friend to play with.

Sports Star:

A special mention this week for two winners: Miss Fuller and Mrs Mitchell.

They were awarded this week's Sports Star award for organising a great wellbeing week with lots of opportunities for fun and movement.

Reception cycling:

Reception had cycling lessons this week, which were conducted by qualified biking instructors from 'The Bicycle Society'. To see them whizz around so confidently in the Sheen Playground was fantastic.

Green Team:

Eco tip of the week: as the weather gets warmer, make sure you water your plants and leave water out for wildlife. At school, we are installing water butts to help us reuse collected rain water.

Notices and reminders:

The half term break is fast approaching. Please note that Monday 3rd June and Tuesday 4th June are INSET days where school is closed to pupils for staff training.

The Recirculate Project takes donated bikes, renovates them in prison workshops and locates them with NHS staff, key workers and others in need. Three hundred and thirteen bicycles have already been given away and they are now in need of more! Message from Sam Silver, founder and CEO of Action-attainment CIC:

With your fundraising support, we want to provide more Seeing STaRS and On the Ball sessions to schools in Richmond and London, to support neurodiverse children and their teachers. It costs about £10 000 to run the Seeing STaRS programme and bring children into our regular sports activities. The funds raised from RideLondon could go a long way to helping us provide more services to more schools.
