Helping Hands

Z is our Helping Hands superstar this week. We are very proud of him for his quick and responsible actions; on his way home he saw a young man fall off his skateboard, knock himself unconscious and land in the road. Z ran to his assistance and quickly realised that he was in danger from oncoming traffic. He managed to stop the traffic when the lights changed and then stayed with the injured man until the police came. He then retrieved the man's skateboard and was rewarded with a fist bump from the police officer before making his way home. Wow!

Sports Star

Miss Swift has made an alternative choice this week for our Sports Star. Miss Thompson has shown real commitment to attending the staff fitness class and now completes the squat challenge without complaining!

Anxiety Course for Parents

Gill Hines is running a four week course to support parents with an anxious child; for more information please go to
