Helping Hands

Miss Kapllani has awarded the Helping Hands Cup to H. She is an amazing help to her teacher because she takes responsibility for her own learning and always tries her best. Congratulations H!

Year Five Museum Curators

Year 5 put their 'thinking helmets' on to learn about life in an Anglo-Saxon village and then became museum curators and created a year 5 museum of Anglo-Saxon artefacts found in Sutton Hoo.

Remote Learning

Contingency Plan

Our remote learning contingency plan has now been published on our website. This details the arrangements for home learning in the event of a partial or total school closure or if a child is required to self isolate. A parentmail will also be sent with the details.

Black History Month

October is Black History Month. Akyaaba Addai-Sebo, established Black History Month in the UK to help inspire Black children.

In school, the children have been learning more about black history in assemblies and through classroom activities.

Mini-Marathon for Children's Trust

The school has now raised over £4,000 for the Children's Trust and we have received a lovely message from the charity who are delighted. The money we have raised could go to a number of different things to support the children and young people the charity cares for, such as:

- * £1,300 provides 120 music therapy sessions
- * £600 funds three music systems to help the children have fun and give them added stimulation
- * £1,000 funds one-fold out hospital bed

Year 1 Autumn Poems

Year 1 have been writing Autumn poems. They have gathered inspiration during their outdoor learning and have even enjoyed a bonfire!
