Helping Hands

Congratulations to I who is this week's Helping Hands recipient. In assembly, Miss Vardy praised Innes for many positive qualities including being kind, helpful and polite. She also works hard and models wonderful behaviour. Well done I.

Sports Star

Mr Shaw awarded W the Sports Star of the Week, recognising his great effort, determination and sportsmanship. What a superstar!

Mental Health Awareness Week

This week is mental health awareness week with a particular theme of nature. In school we have been thinking about how nature can support our positive mental health. Year 6 enjoyed a nature walk around school.

Eid Mubarak

Best wishes to all our families who are celebrating Eid. We hope that you are able to celebrate this important festival despite the continuing Covid restrictions.

Walk to School Week

Next week is walk to school week. Please aim to journey to school by foot or other active means such as cycling or scooting. Walking to school supports our Travel Plan which aims to reduce traffic and pollution outside schools, promoting safety and improved health of our young people. If your journey to school is too far to come by foot, please endeavour to park away from school and complete the final stage by foot. Thank you!
